Call to Worship

One: Jesus is calling us today. Listen! Hear his call in your hearts.

All: We are so troubled, and we do not know whether we dare trust this call.

One: Do not be afraid. Take the step.

All: But it feels so risky.

One: Come, reach out to the Lord; Jesus is reaching out to you.

All: Lord, grasp our hands and our hearts. Heal and strengthen us with your love. AMEN!

*Hymn #457 “I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art”

Confession and Forgiveness

Prayer of Confession

Great God, you have commanded us to go and proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is near. We confess our hesitation. We shrink back from sharing your good news. Often we prefer our own comfort, and we fear what others might think of us. Forgive us for placing our trust in worldly security rather than in your abundant provision. Often we rely on our own strength, wealth, and status rather than depending on your grace. In our interactions with others, we not always have carried your peace. When we meet rejection or hostility, we have been known to harbor bitterness, instead of shaking the dust from our feet and moving forward in love. Help us extend the grace you so generously have lavished on us. Cleanse our hearts of fear, self-reliance, and judgement. By your Holy Spirit, empower us to be agents of healing and peace wherever we go. AMEN.

(a time for silent confession)
